

C. Q. EMPLOYEES ELECT MEMBERS HOUSE, SENATE

2 Additional Representatives Chosen as Result Increase in Local Mine Forces

Senators and representatives were elected on Friday by the Copper Queen employees.

Recent increases in forces resulted in the addition of two seats to the house to be occupied, as the result of the election, by Tom Mort, for the Lowell division, and James Cameron, for the mechanical department.

The elections resulted in the following changes in the senate.

Former and night foreman: Night Foreman Leonard Warrington will succeed T. N. Jewell, former of the Lowell division.

Shift bosses: Southwest division:

A. D. Brown will succeed A. L. Ralph.

Mechanical Department foremen and bosses: Bert W. Parnell, pipe foreman, will succeed D. R. Hancock, former of the hoist rope department.

Clerical department: H. I. Johnson, chief clerk of the supply department, will succeed Arthur Riley, formerly chief clerk of the supply department.

Miscellaneous surface department: C. W. Noon, safety inspector, will succeed W. W. Gidley, employment agent.

Changes in the house resulting from the election follow:

Sacramento division: Allen Tate will succeed John B. Hobbs.

Miscellaneous surface department: T. T. Brayfield will succeed Isaac Safford.

Engineering and metallurgical department: E. C. Cooley will succeed J. C. Chapman.

The membership of the two houses follow:

Charges Against Mitt Simms, Guy Acuff Dismissed

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 30.—Maricopa grand jury indictments charging former secretary of state Mitt Simms and Guy Acuff with conspiracy in connection with state land board loans in Pinal county were dismissed today by superior court Judge R. C. Stanford on recommendation of County Attorney Sheppard. The cases were dismissed on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

No action was taken in connection with indictments on a smaller charge against H. S. Ross, Alfred S. Elboth and P. K. Lewis.

A motion by counsel for the defendants to quash the indictments on the ground that the grand jury which returned them was illegally drawn had previously been denied by Judge Stanford and the decision on the motion to quash was later carried to the supreme court. No supreme court decision on the appeals has yet been announced.
